- The League kicks off this week with games for all bar 7's & 8's. Captains, remember to get those subs in, no excuses, speak to Paul re-selection Saturday evening and forward your Team and Match Report to me by Monday noon (preferably on the Sunday!). Let's start with good habits, encourage early meets, getting nets up etc, sharing responsibilities~~and don't forget the Raffle!!
- Get your Membership paid a.s.a.p...remember, "no pay no play" will come into force! After September I will only be posting out Newsletters to those who have paid up, (and this will also include e-mails as I will be trimming the Database accordingly). Results & Match Reports

The Goulding Cup v Old Stationers..sadly, little to report

1's; Score 1-1; Scorer; O'Neill

Vampires started this Goulding Cup game against Old Stationers in confident mood and a very good pre season. We played some terrific football in patches and moved the ball well and we looked solid at the back, we never created a clear cut chance a few long range shots. Second half we again had most of the game but Stationers looked dangerous on the break and took the lead. Vamps equalised through O'Neill. Well done boys!! Special mention to John Moriarty who stepped down to let a young goalie have a game, very unselfish of him to give the kid a chance. Thanks 4 helping out mate!

2's; Score ?? Scorers; Knight (2), Charles

3's, 4's, 5's ???
